Mice on Main:

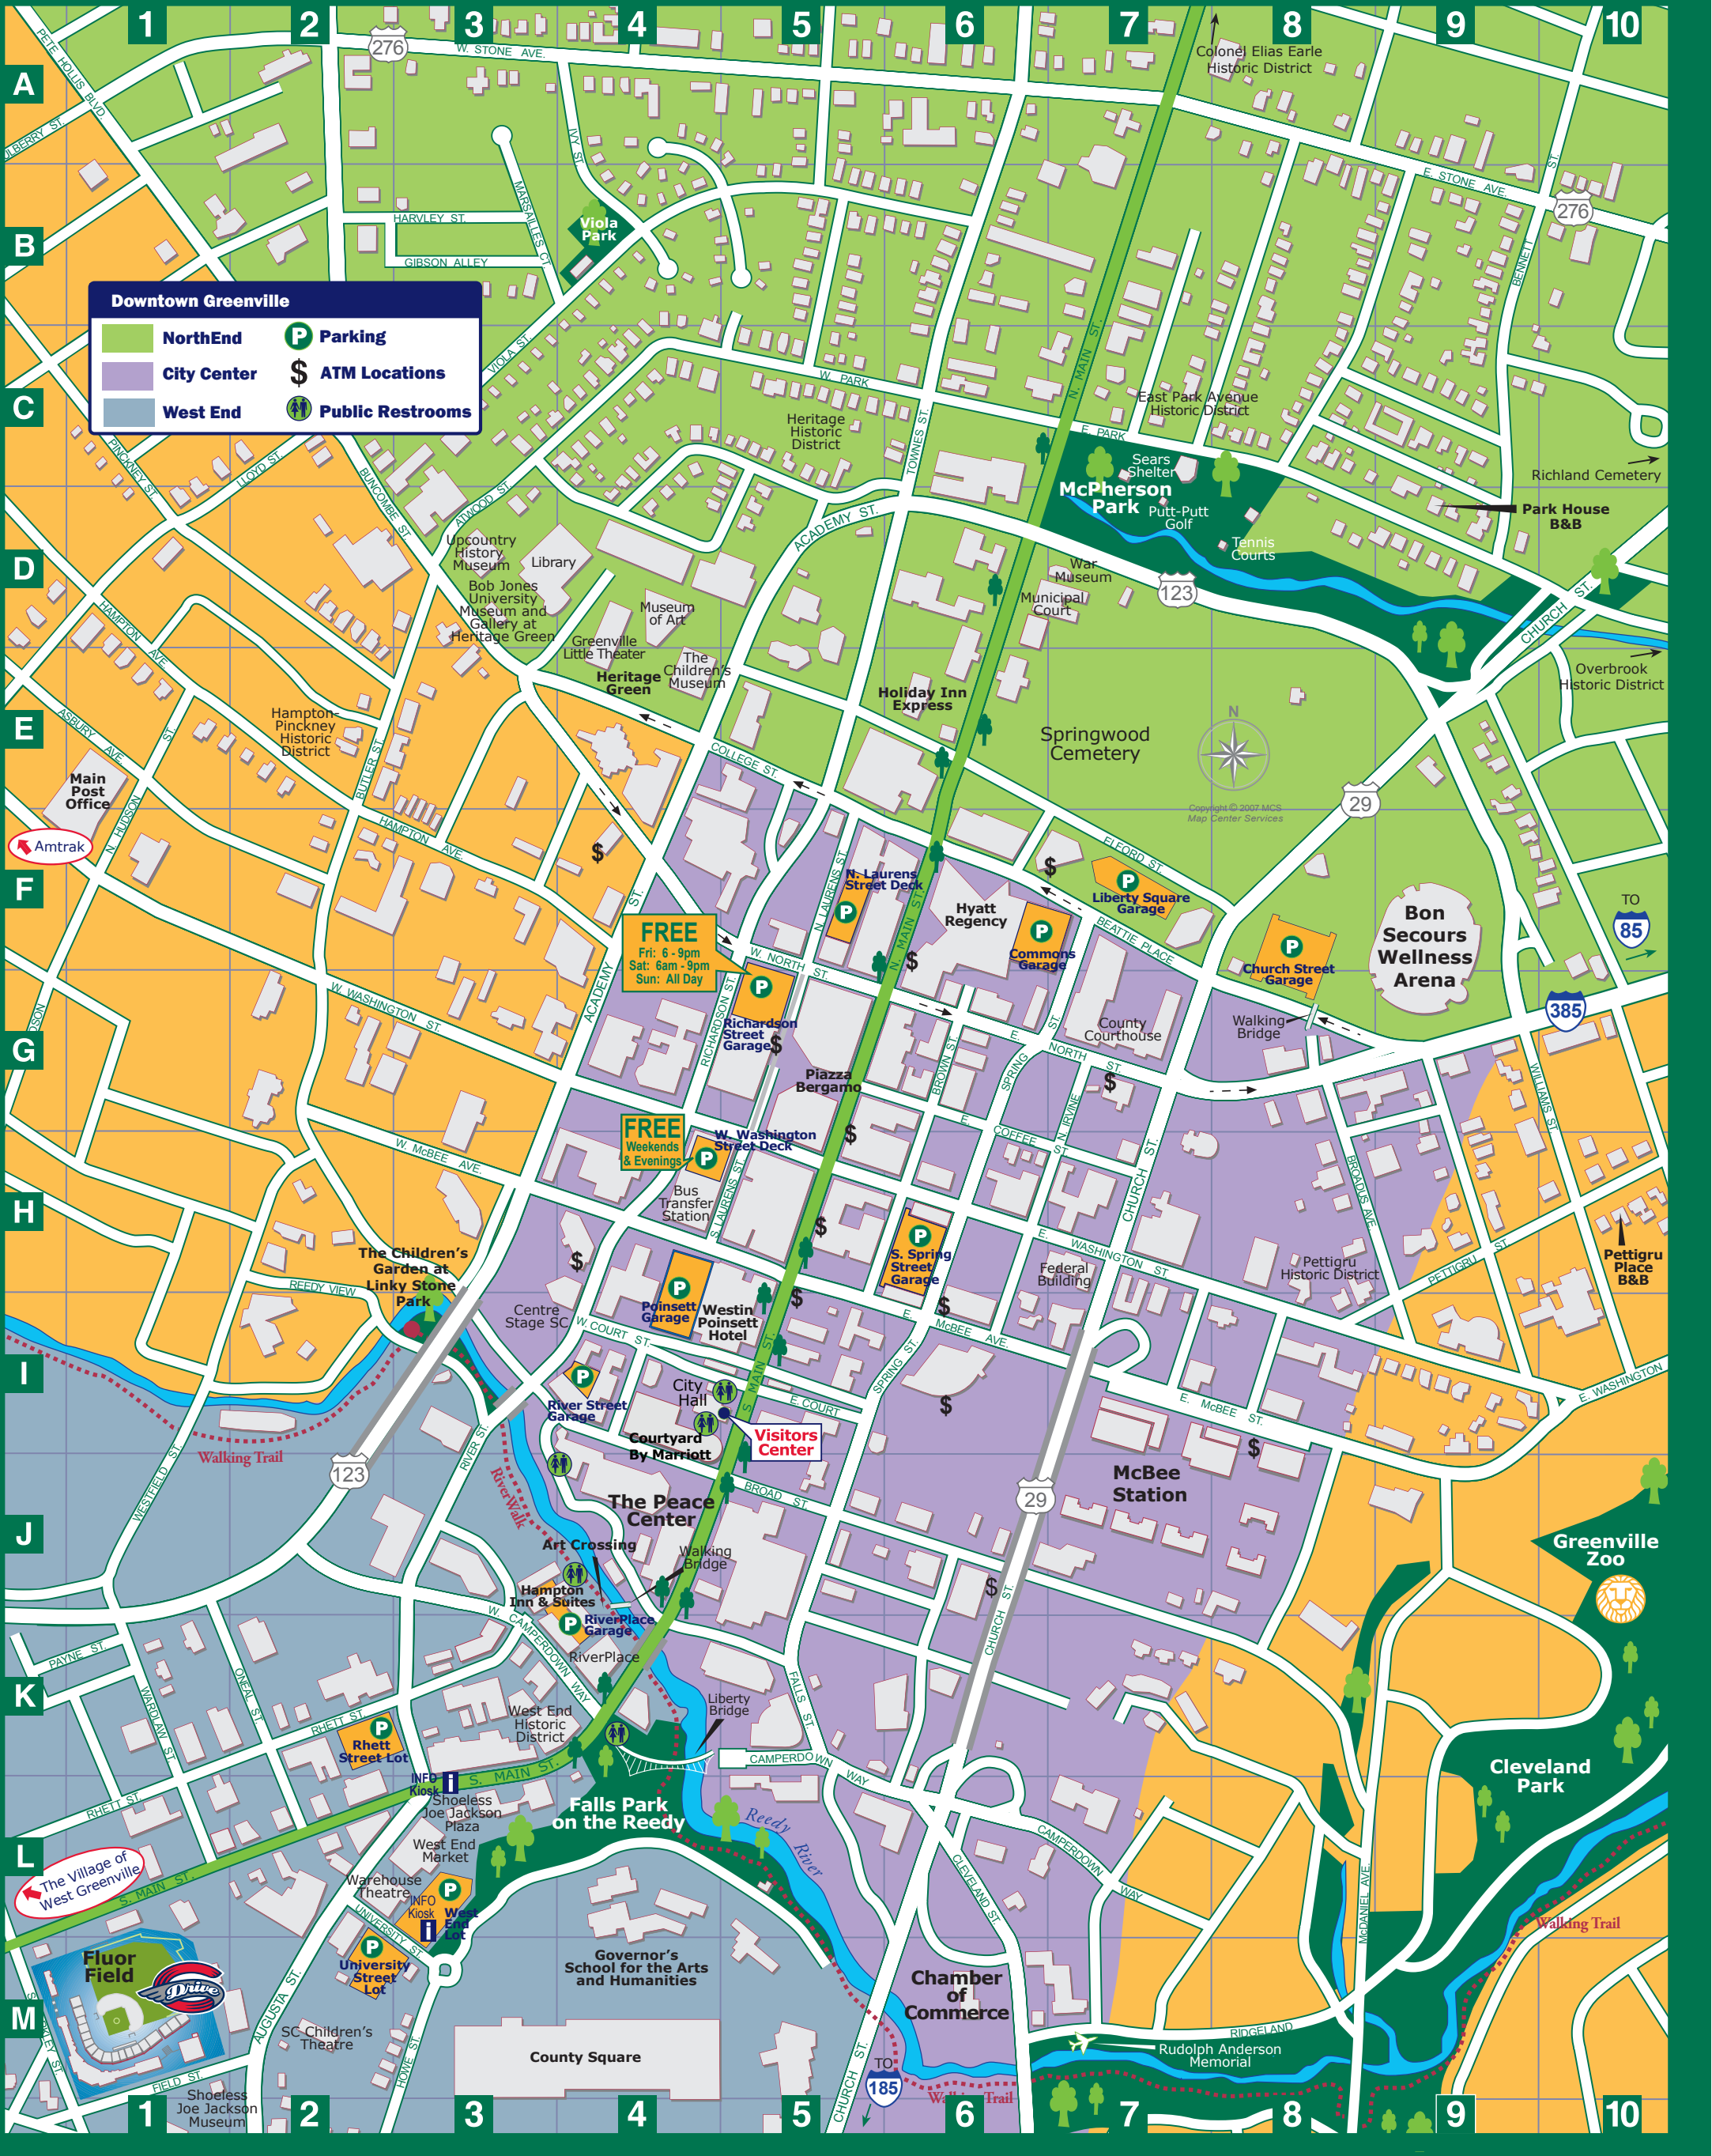

On the hunt for a fun, kid-friendly activity? See if you can find all nine of the small bronze mice hidden along the five blocks of Main Street between the Hyatt Regency and the Westin Poinsett hotels. The children’s book Goodnight Moon was the inspiration for Mice on Main.

Here are clues to help you along the way:

1. Begin your search on North Main where the water flowing in and out of the hotel makes a fountain on the outside. You'll find the father mouse, Marvin, reading his book. He can't hide – take a good look!
2. Mother Maggie is just across, sitting where she can see Marvin. When she looks down the street, she can see their five baby mice, placed here and there, all so sweet.
3. Cross the street and walk a bit. You'll see Marvin, Jr. at the top of the stairs where coffee lovers and computer gurus meet and poets love to count their feet.

4. Marcle's somewhere near the plaza square. Look around. You'll find him there.
5. Millie's a high "high-tech" girl. You'll really have to search, but give it a whirl.
6. Watch out! Mitch does his skateboarding in the bank's alley. You'll be lucky to find him; don't dally.
7. Across the street there's healthy stuff along the way. That's where Melissa loves to play.
8. You'll find Aunt Miffin where there's old money. She's looking at the flowers, honey.
9. Miffin's husband, Uncle Miles, loves to eat Italian. He's by the rain spout. If you've found him, give a shout!
